Dedication

To Supt. Charles M. Rogers, who during the past eighteen years has so ably served the schools of Amarillo as teacher, principal, supervisor, and superintendent, we, the La Airosa staff of 1940, dedicate this book. Through his untiring efforts in guiding the Amarillo schools toward greater growth and efficiency, through his sincere devotion to the best interests of our schools, and through his high ideals, he has helped to bring renown to our school system, to enrich our educational program, and to bring greater opportunities into our school life.

Sandie Songs

Alma Mater

A. H. S.' Oh, A. H. S.'
We'll sing your praise tonight,
To let you know where'er we go
For Black and Gold we'll fight.

We'll sing your worth o'er all the earth
Of schools you are the best.
In books of fame we'll write your name
Oh, A. H. S.'

Touchdown Song

We want a touchdown!
Hear them sing
We want a touchdown,
That's the thing.
Just let some great big bruiser
Husky and tall, carry the ball

In no time at all
We'll have a touchdown,
And when it's over
Let us hear you make some noise.
S A N D-I-E S
We want a touchdown, boys!

Our Boys Gonna Shine Tonite

Here we come, two by two—
Our boys gonna shine tonite.
You'll be blue when we get thru
Our boys gonna shine tonite.

Chorus

I know it! Indeed, I know it,
brother!
I know it! Whee!
Our boys gonna shine tonite!

Sandie spirit never dies—
Our boys gonna shine tonite
Hit 'em with your elbow, sock
'em in the eye
Our boys gonna shine tonite.

Chorus

I know it! Indeed, I know it,
brother!
I know it! Whee!
Our boys gonna shine tonite!

The Sandstorm

AMARILLO HIGH SCHOOL, AMARILLO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1940

SANDSTORM TAKES TOP PLACE IN DISTRICT

The Sandstorm has been judged the best printed high school paper of West Texas for 1939 by the West Texas Scholastic Press Clinic, sponsored by the Journalism Department of Texas Technological College, Lubbock. The announcement was made in a letter to the Sandstorm staff this week.

Five members of the staff accompanied by Charles A. Hertel, left this morning to attend the third annual convention at Lubbock where they were the first place award. Members of the staff attending the convention are M. J. Storch, Deweyne Gaskins, Dennis Collier, assistant editor, Dick Mayer, circulation manager, and Gene Shurtliff, advertising manager.

Hertel Has Many Activities

With six years experience as a sponsor of a high school paper, Charles A. Hertel this year marked the Sandstorm's eleventh year of recording news of school events, progress, and promotion of school spirit.

Coming here from Breckenridge, he joined the Sandstorm through one of the most successful years it being judged the best high school paper in the Panhandle and one of the best in the state.

Jack of Mr. Hertel's capability he has many outstanding achievements. He graduated as valedictorian of his class in 1936 from Cudding High School, Cudding, Texas, where he was also president of the Senior Class and editor of the Traveler, the school paper. Besides these, he was on both the tennis and debate teams, and engaged in extemporaneous speaking. Still, he somehow found time to play a saxophone in the high school orchestra, and was on the football squad one year.

Upon finishing high school, Mr. Hertel entered the University of Texas, where he majored in journalism and received his B. S. degree in 1937. For his outstanding activities in the journalism field, he was elected to Sigma Delta Chi, honorary and professional journalism fraternity. He played his saxophone in the Lighthouse Band one year.

Since graduating from college, he has studied for two summers at the University of Colorado at Boulder and anticipates receiving his M. A. degree this year.

Swimming and tennis are just about tops on his list of diversions, and he also enjoys an occasional game of bridge.

With all these accomplishments, he still has a goal toward which he is striving, and that is to write a novel. He has already had several articles of literary work published.

Staff Members

The Sandstorm staff members shown at the right are M. J. Storch and Deweyne Gaskins, co-editors; Dennis Collier, assistant editor; Chris Reynolds, advertising manager; and Dick Mayer, circulation manager. The Sandstorm is published by the members of the journalism class and volunteer staff members. The proofreaders are Louise Ricketts and Evelyn McCarty. The writers are Charles A. Hertel, Gordon Tompkins, Arthur Gierard, and Bill French. Those who write columns are Dick Mayer, Jena Williams, and Bill Dickson. The advertising solicitors are Jena Davis, Betty Lamb, Hazel Husted, Maxine Campbell, Auna Beavers, and Jeanne Wilkins. The assistants to the circulation manager are Dennis Collier and Gene Shurtliff.

Sandstorm Takes All-State Honors

The Austin High Maroon was judged the best weekly high school paper in Texas by the Texas High School Press Association which met in convention at Texas State College for Women in December.

Eight other Texas high school weeklies were listed as All Texas. Among them was the Sandstorm.

We grave and reverend Seniors
Who thought the years so slow
We spent in acquisition
Of things we had to know
Are filled with wild excitement
At last the goal is won
We gaze in admiration
Upon the work we've done
The courses we have taken,
The stiff exams, we've passed
Would indicate intelligence
With wonder we're aghast

The faculty, they tell us
Are equally surprised
For when they found us passing
They scarce believed their eyes
Perhaps it was their wisdom
That dragged us up to grade,
And so we're saying Thank you,
For good advice and aid.
How often we have counted
The time till holidays
And wished the hours were shorter
In education's way

SANDIE LETTERMEN

ANDREWS, BILL—Co-Captain

Left halfback—This was Bill's third year on the squad, lettering in '38. Was selected on the All District team

GILL, CHARLIE—Captain

Guard—Lettered as a regular guard in '38. He was on the All District team and has been selected to play in the All Star game this summer

BOYTER, R. A

Right end—Second year as a letterman. The perfect type of boy as a trainer and hard worker. He would be a very valuable man next fall but the new age limit catches him

CAZZILL, DICK

Right tackle—Was a Yannigan in '38. Played some very good games. Probably his best was against Plainview. Will not be back next year

CLARK, CLYDE

Left halfback—Although small, Clark packed a lot of power in his drive. Handcapped by an injury in mid-season, he never fully recovered his early form, but will have the '40 season to show what he can do

CRATHOUSE, MYRL

Blocking back—The "find" of the '38 season. With no previous experience, this boy made the starting line-up and has prospects for a great season in '40

HALE, BILLY

Center—made a job as regular tackle in '38 despite his size. Shifted back to center this fall, he played steady and reliable ball.

HARLOW, HAROLD

Tailback—Only a squad man in '38. Great things are to be expected from him in '40

HILL, DICK

Right tackle—Hill was a squad man in '38 and alternated in two positions—left guard and right tackle on this year's team

JOHNSON, M. T

Tailback—"Slugger" developed fast after a slow beginning until he was alternating at his position. He should be a great part of next year's team

KILE, RICHARD

Left tackle—A Yannigan in '37. Kile was on the '38 squad but failed to letter. Changed back to the line this fall, he played several good games

MOSS, TED

Right guard—His second year on the squad, Ted lettered this season as a regular. He should be a power in next year's club

PAGE, FRED

Left guard—Fred was a Yannigan in '38 and played some good ball this year. With a year's added experience and a few more pounds, he should be ready for '40

PAYNE, OTTO

Right halfback—Payne played his first football on the Yannigans in '38. He should be ready for another great season

PLANT, HESTER

Blocking back—The lightest man on the squad but also possessed a fighting heart as big as any.

REDUS, WILLIAM

Left end—A year on the Yannigans made Scud ready for the '39 season, and he held his position in spite of serious competition

WOOTEN, DUB

Right end—Switched about from one end to the other, Dub also found time to play blocking back for part of the time. He will be back for another year

RESERVES

TOP ROW—Boone Baker back, Bruce Collins guard, Hudson Foxworth center, Perry Hill forward, Fred Lee guard
 MIDDLE ROW—Don Moore center, Gene Noland center, Roy Pelt guard, Elmer Stolt guard, Alvin Stolt guard
 BOTTOM ROW—Gene Sweet back, Charles Vick end, Jim Wooten forward, Don Wooten forward

SPEECH ARTS ACTIVITIES

The Speech Department of Amarillo High School is active in both curricula and extra-curricula affairs. The instructors are Miss Oretta Jane Cornelius, Miss Peggy Jane Woodruff, and Mr. Vernon Howard. A total of eleven classes are taught in Fundamentals of Speech 4B, Public Speaking 4A, and Dramatics 4A. These classes get additional speech experience in the opening exercises over the Public Address System each day, in weekly school radio programs, and assembly programs.

The Speech Department sponsors extra-curricula activities: 1. Debating, 2. Declaimers, 3. Extemporaneous, 4. One Act Play Contests. The students representing the school in the Public Speaking contests made trips to Speech Contests at Waco, Lubbock, Levelland, Abilene, and to the Interscholastic League Meets. The debaters were: Howard Fisher, Bill Dickson, Bill Smith, Kenneth Wheatley, Dick Lawrence, Betty Smith, and Fred Dancy. Extemporaneous Speakers were: Estel Ehringer, Bobbie Lizzard, Dorothy Hoover, and Mary N. The Declaimers were: Kay, Jack, Dave Pledger, Scharleen Barker, and Peggy Stack.

The Forensic Societies give the students practice in parliamentary procedure in a contest for the title of Debater, Forum Debater, or the Forensic Club Cup. This annual event was held on March 28 with the President of the Forensic Club presiding. The members of the Forensic Societies wore their Phi Kappa Phi badges and letters around the outside of their shirts. The Presidents of the various Forensic Societies were: Fred Dancy, Betty Smith, Jones, Billy Hae, Dorothy Hawkins, Bill Andrews, Betty Lamb, Dick Lawrence, Pat Holton, W. C. McCosh, Dick Jones, Betty Jean Mead, W. C. Wren, Fern Brannen, and David Cole.

The Theatrical Society presented two plays in assembly. The first, "The Happy Journey," was directed by Doris Cole. The cast included: Robert Edgar, Pat Holton, W. C. Wren, Fred Dancy, Betty Smith, Wanda Wanser, and Linnie Sue Ashby.

The Guide of Mr. Simpson was presented by Doris Cole. The cast included: Fred Dancy, Betty Smith, Lorraine Barnes, Laura Mae Smith, Billie Silverman, Prestene Sullivan, J. Roy Smith, and Tom Cole.

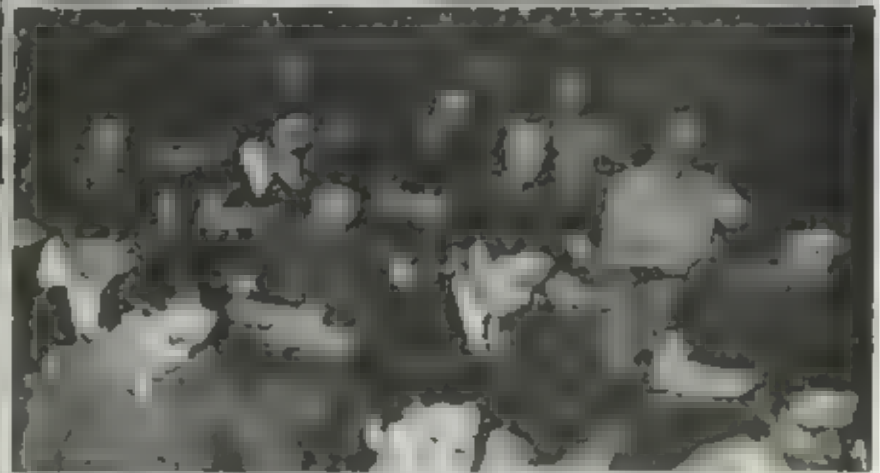

The Dramatics classes selected "Mansions" for the contest play. The cast and understudies included Ernestine Mercer, Butonne Davis, Doris Gale Crowover, Billie Bethune, Leslie Willson, and Denny Plumlee.

For Senior Day, May 17, three one-act plays were given, two of which were "The Happy Journey" with a cast of Pat Holton, Fred Dancy, Robert Edgar, Bob Lawrence, Mary N. The Declaimers were: Kay, Jack, Dave Pledger, Scharleen Barker, and Peggy Stack.

Some of the plays presented by the Dramatic classes for assembly were "Moonshine," "The Man in the Bowler Hat," "His First Date," "Highness," "The High Heart," "Strange Road," and "The Tangled Web."

The teacher was trying to impress on the children how important had been the discovery of the law of gravitation

"Sir Isaac Newton was sitting on the ground looking at a tree. An apple fell on his head and from that he discovered gravitation. Just think, children. Isn't that wonderful?"

Don C.: Yes'm, an' if he had been sitting in the school lookin' at his books, he wouldn't have discovered nothin'

After a terrific struggle, a law student finally finished his examination paper, and then at the end wrote: "Dear Professor: If you sell any of my answers to the funny papers, I expect a split of 50-50 with me."

A teacher was giving his class a lecture on charity. "Aubrey," he said, "if I saw a boy beating a donkey, and I stopped him from doing so, what virtue should I be showing?"

Aubrey F.: "Brotherly love"

Little Lillie T., in town with her mother, caught sight of a bald-headed man

"Oh, mother," she exclaimed, "just see that man! He hasn't a hair on his head. Isn't that sad?"

"Hush!" replied the mother. "He will hear you"

"Oh?" said Lillie T. in a subdued tone. "Doesn't he know it?"

Pat H.: Am I bright? Why, I've won several magazine puzzle contests!

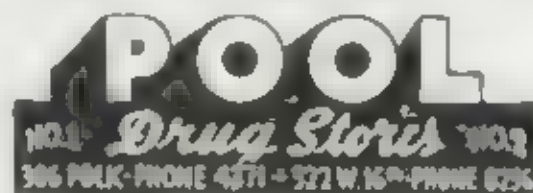

Employer: Yes, but I need a boy who is smart during business hours

Pat H.: Well, this was during business hours.

"Your son," remarked a philanthropic district visitor to an old Irish woman in the east end of Amarillo, "seems an enterprising lad."

"Indade, ma'am," was the reply, "an' since the world was a world there's bin no cleverer bhoy than my Mickey. Why, he's just made two chairs an' a stool out av his own head, an' has plenty av wood left for two more!"

The nurse entered Mr. Lynch's room and said softly: "It's a boy, Mr. Lynch."
Mr. Lynch looked up: "Well, what does he want?"

Mr. Underwood: What is geometry?

Don C.: The little acorn grew and grew, and one day woke up and said, "ge-om-etry!"

Miss Brock: Can anyone tell me what causes trees to become petrified?

Billy N.: The wind makes them rock.

Lieut. McDonald: Now suppose that you went on your post one dark night. Suddenly a person appears from behind and wraps two strong arms around you so you can't use your rifle. What will you call then?

Wilson B.: Let go, honey.

A school teacher is said to have asked the class to name the ten greatest men in the world. One boy wrote.

Mrs. Browning wrote on the back of Howard Vineyard's report card: "A good worker, but talks too much."

Back came the card later with the statement over the signature of Howard's father: "You ought to meet his mother."

The teacher was having her trials and finally wrote the mother: "Your son is the brightest boy in my class, but he is also the most mischievous. What shall I do?"

The reply came duly: "Do as you please. I am having my own troubles with his father."

Mr. Middleton had forbidden the eating of candy and the chewing of gum during school time. One day he became suspicious of a lump in Dick Hill's cheek.

"Dick, are you eating candy or chewing gum?" he asked.

No, replied Dick. "I'm just soaking a prune to eat at lunch."

To a swell guy with a lotta ambition -
lots of luck & everything

George W. Spadalen

Can't think of anything cute or original to say -
just the same old stuff
I wish you all the luck and happiness
in the world, etc.

William -
I have always enjoyed being in class with you and hope I may go on in college with
you. You have a swell personality and a lot of ambition. Just stay as you are and you'll be okay! Betty Gounger
"Huddell"

Dear William -
I hope I see more of you before the school year is over. Maybe we can find some way to meet up again.
Love,
Barbara May

William -
Although I have only known you for a year, I put that leave (know you a long time, and I have had many good times with
you. I hope you have luck and success all through life.
Remember me as a friend -
Love
